

The Newport Daily News.

6.00 PER ANNUM.—

"Liberty and Union now and forever, one and inseparable."—WEBSTER.

SINGLE COPIES TWO CENTS.

VOL. XVII.

NEWPORT, MONDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 24, 1862.

NO. 173.

The Daily News.

For Prospects, Advertising and Subscriptions, see last Column of this page.

Poetical.

LONGFELLOW'S NEW POEM.

The following fine poem by Professor Longfellow, will appear in the December number of the Atlantic. It is the first published by him since the accident which brought such mourning to his house:

THE CUMBERLAND.

At anchor in Boston Roads we lay,
On board of the Cumberland sloop-of-war;
And at times from the fortress across the bay
The shrill of drums swept past,

Or a bugle-blare;

From the camp on shore.

Then we lay in the South winds,
A little feather of snow-white smoke,
And we knew that the iron ship of our foes
Was steadily steering its course.

To try the force

Of our ribs of oak...

Down upon us heavily rums,
Silent and silent, the floating fort;

Then comes a puff of smoke from her guns.

And leaps the terrible death,

With fiery breath,

From each open port.

We are not idle; but send her straight Defence back in full broadside!

As ball rebounds from a roof of slate,

Rebounds our heavier hull,

From the monster's hide.

Strike your flag! the rebel cries,
In his arrogant old plantation strain,

Never our gallant Nor'wicks replies;

"It is better to sink than to yield!"

And the whole ad perdu.

With the cheer of our men,

Then, like a kraken huge and black,

She writhed our ribs in her iron grasp!

Down went the Cumberland all a-wreck,

With a hidden shadow of death,

For her dying gasp.

Next morn, as the sun rose over the bay,

Still flouted our flag at the matin-mist-head,

Lord, how beautiful was thy day!

Every waltz of the air,

Was a whisper of prayer,

Or a dirge for the dead.

Miscellany.

ROMANTIC BUT TRUE.

Many of the habits of the Boston Police Court will recollect when Judge Russell, now of the Superior Court, held sessions in the lower tribunal and the wonderful manœuvres in which he "worked" off criminals, and discharged those who were innocent. He was the clearest headed magistrate we ever saw on the bench and seemed to have some intuitive perception of the truth or falsity of a statement made by a witness. His questions were always sharp quick and to the point and he required brief answers and correct ones.

While Judge Russell was on the bench, a young girl, a native of Canada, with but an imperfect knowledge of the English language, her parents being French, was arrested on a charge of stealing a shawl and a gold pin, all valued at about twenty-five dollars. On the morning that she was to be arraigned we sat in court, writing at a desk when we were informed that the judge desired to speak with us. We hastened to communicate with him.

"I wish," said the judge, "that you would visit the Tomb and see what you can make of a young girl who is locked up there. Find out her history and report to me before the case is called up."

We went out on mission, but was intensely astonished on meeting the object of it. The prisoner was not more than seventeen, with one of the sweetest, most modest faces, that we had seen for many days although the eyes were swollen by a continual flow of tears. Well after a short series of questions we heard her story and we believe it. She had visited Boston to find a relative who had promised her work. She had lost the directions and while wandering around, a fashionable dressed female had spoken to and offered to find her a home until she could hear from her friends. The girl, innocent and unsuspecting, consented to accept her offer. They went to Hudson street where the stranger, for two days was treated with kindness but on the third some proposition was made to her which she rejected with indignation and desired to leave the house. This was denied her. She was threatened, but still refused compliance with the woman's wishes and one morning no officer was called into the house and the girl found that she was a prisoner, charged with stealing a shawl and pin from the woman of the place and as the officer knew the character of the house, he did not stop to make many inquiries, but arrested the girl on the assertions of the woman and a masculine brute, connected with the latter by ties of interest, not of a matrimonial character however.

This was the Canadian's story, and we believed it. We reported the case to the judge, just as we had heard it, but he made no comment. The prisoner was arraigned at time when the court was clear of leases, and the woman who made the complaint was called to the stand, and told her story in a gibberish manner. Her "friend" was excluded from the room until his testimony was wanted.

The court suffered the woman to make just such statements as she pleased, after she had concluded he asked no questions. She sat down and her "friend" was called. He corroborated the testimony of the woman, and was about to leave the stand when the judge suddenly said:

"How much were you to receive for the virtue of that girl?"

"Sir?" stammered the witness.

"Answer the question," thundered the judge, his black eyes snapping until they seemed to emit sparks of light.

"Sir—I—"

"Answer the question," the court repeated.

The brute glanced in the direction of the woman, but an officer would suffer no communication.

Not even a look could be exchanged.

He was puzzled. He didn't know how much his confederate had confessed; therefore feared to pursue himself.

"Will you answer the question?" the court asked, in a subdued tone, but one which was heard all over the room.

"Sir—he had the promise of one hundred dollars, sir," was the answer.

"Who is she?"

"Mrs. S.—" who makes the complaint and keeps the house."

"Now tell me who put the shawl and pin in the girl's coat?" the court demanded.

"Mrs N.—, sir," was the answer.

"You lie," scolded the woman, in a violent paroxysm of rage, rushing towards the witness as though she would tear him to pieces. But the officer held back.

"Discharge the prisoner," cried the court, as cool as ever, "and officers arrest the witnesses. Mr. Clerk, make out warrants for perjury and keeping a house of ill-fame. Hold them each in six thousand dollars for trial. Adjourn the court."

The parties were convicted in the upper court, and the Canadian, who nearly lost liberty, virtue, and character, found friends and is now the wife of an excellent Destourien. Of course she reveres the name of Russell. American Union.

For her dying gasp,

Next morn, as the sun rose over the bay,

Still flouted our flag at the matin-mist-head,

Lord, how beautiful was thy day!

Every waltz of the air,

Was a whisper of prayer,

Or a dirge for the dead.

Ho! brave hearts that went down in the sea!

Ye are at peace in the troubled stream.

Ho! brave lad! with hearts like these,

They sing, that is real in truth,

Shall be one again,

And without a beam!

—

There's a piece of domestic philosophy for you, my boy.

When the General heard of his removal, my boy, he said that it was like divorcing a husband from a wife who had always supported him, and immediately let fly the following farewell address:

HEADQUARTERS OF ARMY OF ACCOMAC,

FOOT OF THE BLUE RIDGE.

My Children: An order from the Honest Abe dividers us, and gives the command of all these who were innocent. He was the clearest headed magistrate we ever saw on the bench and seemed to have some intuitive perception of the truth or falsity of a statement made by a witness.

His questions were always sharp quick and to the point and he required brief answers and correct ones:

While Judge Russell was on the bench, a young girl, a native of Canada, with but an imperfect knowledge of the English language, her parents being French, was arrested on a charge of stealing a shawl and a gold pin, all valued at about twenty-five dollars. On the morning that she was to be arraigned we sat in court, writing at a desk when we were informed that the judge desired to speak with us. We hastened to communicate with him.

"I wish," said the judge, "that you would visit the Tomb and see what you can make of a young girl who is locked up there. Find out her history and report to me before the case is called up."

We went out on mission, but was intensely astonished on meeting the object of it. The prisoner was not more than seventeen, with one of the sweetest, most modest faces, that we had seen for many days although the eyes were swollen by a continual flow of tears. Well after a short series of questions we heard her story and we believe it. She had visited Boston to find a relative who had promised her work. She had lost the directions and while wandering around, a fashionable dressed female had spoken to and offered to find her a home until she could hear from her friends. The girl, innocent and unsuspecting, consented to accept her offer. They went to Hudson street where the stranger, for two days was treated with kindness but on the third some proposition was made to her which she rejected with indignation and desired to leave the house. This was denied her. She was threatened, but still refused compliance with the woman's wishes and one morning no officer was called into the house and the girl found that she was a prisoner, charged with stealing a shawl and pin from the woman of the place and as the officer knew the character of the house, he did not stop to make many inquiries, but arrested the girl on the assertions of the woman and a masculine brute, connected with the latter by ties of interest, not of a matrimonial character however.

This was the Canadian's story, and we believed it. We reported the case to the judge, just as we had heard it, but he made no comment. The prisoner was arraigned at time when the court was clear of leases, and the woman who made the complaint was called to the stand, and told her story in a gibberish manner. Her "friend" was excluded from the room until his testimony was wanted.

The court suffered the woman to make just such statements as she pleased, after she had concluded he asked no questions. She sat down and her "friend" was called. He corroborated the testimony of the woman, and was about to leave the stand when the judge suddenly said:

"How much were you to receive for the virtue of that girl?"

"Sir?" stammered the witness.

"Answer the question," thundered the judge, his black eyes snapping until they seemed to emit sparks of light.

"Sir—I—"

"Answer the question," the court repeated.

The brute glanced in the direction of the woman, but an officer would suffer no communication.

Not even a look could be exchanged.

He was puzzled. He didn't know how much his confederate had confessed; therefore feared to pursue himself.

"Will you answer the question?" the court asked, in a subdued tone, but one which was heard all over the room.

"Sir—he had the promise of one hundred dollars, sir," was the answer.

"You lie," scolded the woman, in a violent paroxysm of rage, rushing towards the witness as though she would tear him to pieces. But the officer held back.

"Discharge the prisoner," cried the court, as cool as ever, "and officers arrest the witnesses. Mr. Clerk, make out warrants for perjury and keeping a house of ill-fame. Hold them each in six thousand dollars for trial. Adjourn the court."

The parties were convicted in the upper court, and the Canadian, who nearly lost liberty, virtue, and character, found friends and is now the wife of an excellent Destourien. Of course she reveres the name of Russell. American Union.

For her dying gasp,

Next morn, as the sun rose over the bay,

Still flouted our flag at the matin-mist-head,

Lord, how beautiful was thy day!

Every waltz of the air,

Was a whisper of prayer,

Or a dirge for the dead.

—

There's a piece of domestic philosophy for you, my boy.

When the General heard of his removal, my boy, he said that it was like divorcing a husband from a wife who had always supported him, and immediately let fly the following farewell address:

HEADQUARTERS OF ARMY OF ACCOMAC,

FOOT OF THE BLUE RIDGE.

My Children: An order from the Honest Abe dividers us, and gives the command of all these who were innocent. He was the clearest headed magistrate we ever saw on the bench and seemed to have some intuitive perception of the truth or falsity of a statement made by a witness.

His questions were always sharp quick and to the point and he required brief answers and correct ones:

While Judge Russell was on the bench, a young girl, a native of Canada, with but an imperfect knowledge of the English language, her parents being French, was arrested on a charge of stealing a shawl and a gold pin, all valued at about twenty-five dollars. On the morning that she was to be arraigned we sat in court, writing at a desk when we were informed that the judge desired to speak with us. We hastened to communicate with him.

"I wish," said the judge, "that you would visit the Tomb and see what you can make of a young girl who is locked up there. Find out her history and report to me before the case is called up."

We went out on mission, but was intensely astonished on meeting the object of it. The prisoner was not more than seventeen, with one of the sweetest, most modest faces, that we had seen for many days although the eyes were swollen by a continual flow of tears. Well after a short series of questions we heard her story and we believe it. She had visited Boston to find a relative who had promised her work. She had lost the directions and while wandering around, a fashionable dressed female had spoken to and offered to find her a home until she could hear from her friends. The girl, innocent and unsuspecting, consented to accept her offer. They went to Hudson street where the stranger, for two days was treated with kindness but on the third some proposition was made to her which she rejected with indignation and desired to leave the house. This was denied her. She was threatened, but still refused compliance with the woman's wishes and one morning no officer was called into the house and the girl found that she was a prisoner, charged with stealing a shawl and pin from the woman of the place and as the officer knew the character of the house, he did not stop to make many inquiries, but arrested the girl on the assertions of the woman and a masculine brute, connected with the latter by ties of interest, not of a matrimonial character however.

This was the Canadian's story, and we believed it. We reported the case to the judge, just as we had heard it, but he made no comment. The prisoner was arraigned at time when the court was clear of leases, and the woman who made the complaint was called to the stand, and told her story in a gibberish manner. Her "friend" was excluded from the room until his testimony was wanted.

The court suffered the woman to make just such statements as she pleased, after she had concluded he asked no questions. She sat down and her "friend" was called. He corroborated the testimony of the woman, and was about to leave the stand when the judge suddenly said:

"How much were you to receive for the virtue of that girl?"

"Sir?" stammered the witness.

The Daily News.

NEWPORT

Monday Afternoon, November 2d, 1862.

For EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT, Local News General and War News, see this page—Latest News, by Telegraph—Commercial and Marine Matters, Third page—Miscellaneous Reading, full Subscription and Advertising Terms, First page.

Advertisers are not allowed to insert stereotyped play bills or cuts in the columns of this paper.

WILL THE REBELS BACK DOWN?

In his speech at Liverpool, on the 18th of October last, ex-Gov. Morehead, of Kentucky, said, "there is not one human being throughout the entire Confederated States who help me God! Not one, I believe, unless it is a stray Yankee who has got down there and can't get away—that has not resolved in his heart of hearts that the last drop of blood shall be shed before they will ever submit to the cruel tyranny of the 'North again.' With some small grains of allowance, we are inclined to take this statement as correct. The current of sentiment and feeling at the South is beyond question hostile to a return to the Union even if it was," and the Constitution "as it is." This being so, it is not surprising that some good men are found who feel disheartened and discouraged, and lose heart in the accomplishment of anything better than a final agreement to separate.

We cannot rid ourselves of the conviction that great mischief has been done by the reliance which in high quarters has been placed upon the strength and the ultimate co-operation with us of a Union sentiment at the South.

In two ways this has produced evil—by inferring our efforts to put down the rebellion, and as a consequence of this, diminishing what little Union sentiment primarily existed.

If there were in the seceded States men loyal to the government, it was clearly a duty for us to demonstrate our power for their protection—but instead of this, we have talked about the Union sentiment developing itself, and have hesitated to deal vigorous blows at the rebellion, through fear of injuring at the same time these Union men. As a consequence, those who at the outset were inclined to stand by the old flag and remain true to the government have been forced to take active part with the rebels. All this is due, unquestionably, to a humane, though a mistaken policy.

It is too late to remedy the past; and there can be special profit in bringing up its mistakes, except as they furnish warning and wisdom for future action. The lesson these teach is the necessity of treating the inhabitants of the seceded States as our enemies—of accepting as true the assertion of ex-Governor Morehead—of relying solely on the power of the government to conquer the rebels.

But if this implacable hostility exists, if there be indeed this fixed determination on the part of the rebels to shed every drop of blood, before they will submit to the authority of the government, what hope can there be of a return to the Union? In the first place, there is no hope of Union through compromise. We cannot now go back, if we would, to the Union as it was. If any suggestion of a return to allegiance to the old government were made, it would be coupled with the condition of fresh guarantees for the protection of slavery. But we do not believe, that such suggestion will ever come from the rebels, or if offered by us would be listened to for a moment. So that, fight we must, however dubious may appear the result. Again, the rebels are determined to maintain a separate government. If we allow this to be done, we do not help our condition—we do not secure peace. For the common sense of every man teaches him, that two governments cannot exist within the territory of the United States, in harmony. The cause which produced the rebellion, would stir up constant strife—there would be border feuds, and ultimately a fiercer and more bitter war than the present.

We are not solicitous to inquire precisely how the intense hostility of the South is finally to be allayed; nor is our action to be controlled by our hopes or fears. Taking the feeling and determination of the entire South to be precisely as represented by the ex-Governor, we do not dispose to flinch from the prosecution of the war, or abate one jot of vigor. Nothing remains for us, but to fight till Southern resistance is thoroughly overcome. As a mere trial of strength, of physical endurance, of means for carrying on the war, the result cannot be doubtful, if our strength is put forth and our means wisely employed. If we hesitate to strike deadly blows, or do not follow them with rapidity, or, from constitutional scruples, leave the very prop and stay of the rebellion unattacked, we may well lose hope. Such a course will embolden the rebels, and swell the ranks of their sympathizers at the North by the timid ones who will distrust the possibility of our success.—New Bedford Mercury.

A rich lead mine has been discovered on Shangwink Mountain, Orange county, N. Y. It is said to be rich in ore of great purity, and will form a source of great wealth to the owners. The vein was struck at six feet below the surface and has been penetrated to the depth of eight feet.

The number of students in Williams College is small this term, the war having tended, both directly and indirectly, to make it so. About thirty have joined the ranks. Of these, a member of the senior class died a few weeks in Washington, having been three wounded. The students are drilling daily under the direction of Lieut. D. M. Blackie of Boston.

General McClellan and family arrived in New York on Wednesday night, and are staying at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

LOCAL NEWS

INDEPENDENT GENEVA.—We call the attention of our readers to an advertisement in to-day's issue, in reference to Thanksgiving at the Grove. The advertisement is from the Sanitary Committee who are making the most praiseworthy efforts to make their enterprise a successful one, and we have, no doubt, that our citizens, who are able, will promptly respond to the call and give needed aid.

The room of the Sanitary Committee, No. 1 Fladde's Block will be open throughout the day to-morrow, to receive the contributions of all who are inclined to contribute of their abundance for a Thanksgiving feast at the Portsmouth Grove Hospital. We hope every one will avail himself of the opportunity and that the sick and wounded soldiers there, on an island, will know something of the cheer of a Thanksgiving dinner on Thursday next.

We should remember that the sick and wounded soldiers at Portsmouth Grove know nothing of the taste of roasted meats, and poultry is something of which they can only have a dim recollection. For it is beyond the power of those who have charge of the hospital to furnish anything in the way of turkeys and chickens, and all meats served on the soldier's table are boiled. An opportunity is now offered the public of giving them a taste on Thanksgiving day, but all articles of meat kind furnished should be sent to the Committee's room (see Advertisement) ready roasted to insure a good old fashioned Thanksgiving feast at the day.

Turkeys, Geese and Chickens roasted, together with pie-cakes &c., will be packed carefully and sent out to the Hospital at Portsmouth Grove, for Thanksgiving if sent to Fladde's Block, No. 1 tomorrow.

SOMONKE SUNKEN AND THREE LIVES LOST.—We are informed that a schooner laden with Oysters struck whale rock, in the west bay, on Saturday night last about 7 o'clock, and soon after sunk. Three men were drowned, but the Captain sustained himself upon the top of the mast about 8 feet of which stood out of water, until half-past 9 o'clock yesterday morning, when he was seen and released from his dangerous position by Capt. Nichols of the Rocky Brook who was going from Providence to the Pier.

When taken off by Captain Nichols, the Captain of the sunken schooner was entirely exhausted and helpless. He was almost in a state of unconsciousness, and when unlashed from the top-mast he fell into the boat like a log. He is now at the boarding house of Mr. Edward Whaley at the Pier, and is as comfortable as can be expected. There was another man who leaped himself, but fell off in about four hours. To the Captain of the lost vessel it must have been a terrible night. We regret that Capt. Nichols was unable to furnish us the name of the vessel or Captain, as when found this last was too far gone, and since his recovery from the sunken vessel, too flighty to render any information. We have some reason to think that the schooner belonged to Five Island.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Rowland R. Hazard, Jr., sold on Saturday last the two estates in front of his residence, 122 Thames st., and estates to John Giswold, for the sum of $28,000. Mr. Hazard has purchased the Henderson lot to the west of the Park for $6,500. There has also been another very heavy sale of real estate in the city, the particulars of which have not, as yet, transpired.

PROMOTION.—We are pleased to hear of the promotion of Capt. Archibald D. Pell to a Majority. As he has not as yet arrived to his majority of twenty-one years of age, his promotion to a Major's commission is highly creditable to him.

Correspondence of the News.—
NEW YORK, Nov. 21, 1862.
To the News.—General Banks, so hard working at his expedition, has declined a citizens reception from the New York public. So fully and deeply is his heart in his work, that he would not for a day only turn aside from it; besides General Banks is willing to wait until the proper time—the close of the war—for his glories and praises. Now he would earn them—then, if he has merited esteem and won glory, like any sensible, true man, he is willing to receive them.

The many and warm friends of General Banks in this city, and in fact all over the North, are much gratified at his appointment to this new and important command. That it is important, and perhaps more so than the public imagine, cannot be doubted. The preparations going on here are immense. Twenty thousand soldiers are said to be encamped in this neighborhood. Hardy sons of Maine and Vermont, with other States' children, are repelling in camps here and there, waiting with the light of a glorious prospect in their eyes. Other material fill up the spaces. I say there will be a blow struck when the proper time comes. And as Banks is at the head, who can doubt its success?

Another "lion" General holds the attention of all New York to-day. Mac is in town. He will have a great reception. The New York public, though divided in opinion of him, will at least be doubtful, if our strength is put forth and our means wisely employed. If we hesitate to strike deadly blows, or do not follow them with rapidity, or, from constitutional scruples, leave the very prop and stay of the rebellion unattacked, we may well lose hope. Such a course will embolden the rebels, and swell the ranks of their sympathizers at the North by the timid ones who will distrust the possibility of our success.—New Bedford Mercury.

We are not solicitous to inquire precisely how the intense hostility of the South is finally to be allayed; nor is our action to be controlled by our hopes or fears. Taking the feeling and determination of the entire South to be precisely as represented by the ex-Governor, we do not dispose to flinch from the prosecution of the war, or abate one jot of vigor. Nothing remains for us, but to fight till Southern resistance is thoroughly overcome. As a mere trial of strength, of physical endurance, of means for carrying on the war, the result cannot be doubtful, if our strength is put forth and our means wisely employed. If we hesitate to strike deadly blows, or do not follow them with rapidity, or, from constitutional scruples, leave the very prop and stay of the rebellion unattacked, we may well lose hope. Such a course will embolden the rebels, and swell the ranks of their sympathizers at the North by the timid ones who will distrust the possibility of our success.—New Bedford Mercury.

A rich lead mine has been discovered on Shangwink Mountain, Orange county, N. Y. It is said to be rich in ore of great purity, and will form a source of great wealth to the owners. The vein was struck at six feet below the surface and has been penetrated to the depth of eight feet.

The number of students in Williams College is small this term, the war having tended, both directly and indirectly, to make it so. About thirty have joined the ranks. Of these, a member of the senior class died a few weeks in Washington, having been three wounded. The students are drilling daily under the direction of Lieut. D. M. Blackie of Boston.

General McClellan and family arrived in New York on Wednesday night, and are staying at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

Trade and business are capital for the times. The manufacturers are bothered to nobly good boughs—astounding how gay and flourishing New York is in these war-days. With the rise in prices wages have risen to counterbalance. I bear no grumbling of dull times, but a general cheerfulness at the promising prospects. It cannot be possible to sustain high wheat land, except of those things whose material has become dead and rotten. We may look for a settling down of gold and wages.

On Friday last, two thousand postage stamps of various values were passed over the city. The first days of this week form a several public holding soiled stamps, and with sorry faces mourning the loss. Great trouble ensued. Change could not be made. The government currency could go but a little way—so specie came out again to refresh us. Now the old stamp is dirty as ever, floating about. When we can have plenty of paper money that is reliable, as far as it goes, it will do to thrust away these little conveniences, not before. Dear public, wait a little for Uncle Sam's currency.

MARK MASCO.

STONEWALL JACKSON.—The latest information from Harper's Ferry reports Stonewall Jackson as "falling back." The Washington Star understands this to mean that he is hastening to join Lee's main army with his command. However, whether he is doing so or not, he will hardly venture an attempt to make a serious raid in the direction of Washington or in that of Maryland, because he must know that there are ample Union troops in both to meet him promptly and successfully. The fact that his movements have been so long shrouded in mystery, proves to us, comprehension at least, that his army is much less than is generally thought within our lines. The force of Sigel, Gen. Helmstetler's command, and the troops at Harper's Ferry, and elsewhere on the Upper Potomac, are so disposed and so kept in readiness for a movement in any direction his possible movements may render necessary, as that the good people of Maryland, who have been anticipating his disagreeable presence among them, may dismiss their current fears.

The Wheeling Intelligencer of the 17th inst. says:

"We have the best reason for believing that the apprehension of a raid by Stonewall Jackson on Cumberland and New Creek is without real foundation. A highly intelligent gentleman, with every facility for obtaining correct information, and who made it a part of his business to do so, has just come through from Baltimore to Hancock. He has satisfied himself from evidences obtained along the route, that Jackson's main army is still situated at Stephen's Depot, four miles north-east of Winchester on the Winchester & Potowmack Railroad. His men are destitute of tents, and it is believed he cannot possibly, in their present condition, find shelter for his army. The force of Sigel, Gen. Helmstetler's command, and the troops at Harper's Ferry, and elsewhere on the Upper Potomac, are so disposed and so kept in readiness for a movement in any direction his possible movements may render necessary, as that the good people of Maryland, who have been anticipating his disagreeable presence among them, may dismiss their current fears."

The Grenada Appeal has a despatch dated Richmond 15th inst., which says that the Federals have a numerous fleet in the James River, in the neighborhood of Grandon Bar.

The Wheeling Intelligencer of the 17th inst. says:

"We have the best reason for believing that the apprehension of a raid by Stonewall Jackson on Cumberland and New Creek is without real foundation. A highly intelligent gentleman, with every facility for obtaining correct information, and who made it a part of his business to do so, has just come through from Baltimore to Hancock. He has satisfied himself from evidences obtained along the route, that Jackson's main army is still situated at Stephen's Depot, four miles north-east of Winchester on the Winchester & Potowmack Railroad. His men are destitute of tents, and it is believed he cannot possibly, in their present condition, find shelter for his army. The force of Sigel, Gen. Helmstetler's command, and the troops at Harper's Ferry, and elsewhere on the Upper Potomac, are so disposed and so kept in readiness for a movement in any direction his possible movements may render necessary, as that the good people of Maryland, who have been anticipating his disagreeable presence among them, may dismiss their current fears."

The Philadelphia Corn Exchange has passed resolutions calling upon the municipal government to use effectual means for protecting that port against the entrance of hostile vessels.

One hundred officers, absent without leave, have been struck from the rolls, and their names will be published forthwith. This is the first installation of the one thousand now absent skulking.

The property of Timothy Slusher in Washington, valued at from $40,000 to $60,000, has been confiscated by the Provost-Marshal. Mr. Slusher is now in Dixie.

It is said that the Postmaster-General will lay before Congress a plan for abolishing the annual offices in the immediate vicinity of large cities, making their removals to the city offices.

Bowdon College has sent 184 men to the war, 126 of whom are commissioned officers. Among them are one brigadier-general (acting major-general) colonels and 8 lieutenant-colonels.

The sale of Rembrandt Peale's paintings in Philadelphia attracted many purchasers, but the prices realized were not up to the appraised value. The equestrian statue of Washington was sold for $1000 to Mr. Cleghorn, and by him presented to the city.

If the men who are counterfeiting postal currency do not issue it more rapidly than the genuine currency has appeared, the immediate danger of being flooded with it is not very great.—Prov. Journal.

A fire occurred on Tuesday night in Lotey's Iron Works in Chicago, which damaged the building to the amount of about $6000. Insured. Loss on stock will be $10,000. Half insured.

A dispatch from Cairo to the Chengo Tribune says that cotton is reaching there in large quantities. One steamer from Memphis brought 9000.

CAMP SONGS—New Edition, Enlarged.

THANKSGIVING DINNER AT PORTSMOUTH GROVE.

NOTICE.—NOTICE is hereby given that the rooms of the Sanitary Committee, No. 1 Fladde's Block, will be open during the day, to-morrow, Tuesday, to receive articles contributed by the liberally disposed citizens of Newport, for the THANKSGIVING DINNER AT PORTSMOUTH GROVE.

CHRISTIAN ALMANAC FOR 1863.

FRANKELESSES COMIC ALMANAC FOR 1863.

BALMORAL'S DOLLAR MONTHLY FOR DECEMBER.

METHODIST ALMANAC FOR 1863.

FOR SALE AT

W. M. C. COZZENS & CO'S,

A LARGE SUPPLY OF BLANKETS and ready made

CONFEDERATES.

BLANKETS.

A VERY SUPERIOR 1/4 the wool Blankets

at ten dollars a pair. Very cheap for these times.

REMINANT CARPETS.

REMINANT CARPETS for bedchairs, in two yard pieces of heat quality ingrain—for one $1.25 each,

also Remants three ply, in two yard pieces—for one dollar and fifty cents each—just half price.

OIL CLOTH CARPETS.

OIL CLOTH CARPETS to put under stoves for sale cheap.

FLANNELS.

A GREAT VARIETY OF FLANNELS.

FIVE HOLE RANGES—Success, Home Guard and

Madison, at 117 Thames st.

NEW CLOAKS & CLOAKINGS just opened

Cloak bought of us can be made up to order, at short notice and cheap.

W. M. C. COZZENS & CO.

BALMORAL BOOTS SELLING CHEAP.

100 pairs double sole Balmorals at

$2.50

do

1.87

do

1.50

do

1.25

J. M. SWAN, 100 Thames st.

GREATLY REDUCED PRICES—A quantity of

City Music, slightly damaged, for sale low at the Special Notices.

BUTTER. BUTTER.

M. HALL & SON,

HARVEY MILL TINTS AND PAINTS
Manufactured from the Finest Materials of New York, to which the public are invited to call and purchase.
Oct 5—1860.WING'S FARINA CRACKERS FOR FAMILY
USE.—These Crackers are such well-known delicacy, and so convenient, that we would consider our table complete without them. "Wing's Farina Crackers" are stamped with the name "A WING" and may be had at the best family grocers.MAPLE, OAK AND SOUTHERN PINE WOOD,

—ALSO—

Prepared Kindling Wood,

Lehigh, Red Ash, Trevorton and Cannel

COAL,

AT SWINBURNE'S.

U. S. ARMY AND NAVY.

ATTENTION!

The particular attention of Officers in the Army and Navy is solicited to the

UNPRECEDENTED ADVANTAGES

which the subscribers offer in the way of the best goods through workmanship, and above all, the low prices at which they furnish the latest style

REGULATION UNIFORMS,

which are manufactured at the very shortest notice.

CHARLES A. SMITH & CO.,
No. 1 Old State House,
Head of State Street;

Boston.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

REDUCTION OF PRICES.

In order to make room for Fall and Winter Goods,
the balance of our

ELEGANT STOCK

of Summer Goods will be marked down to such very low prices as to offer extraordinary inducements to gentlemen who wish for elegant wearing apparel, made in superior style, with the best of workmanship and trimmings.

A word to the wise is sufficient.

CHARLES A. SMITH & CO.,
No. 1 Old State House,
Head of State Street;

Boston.

JULY 22 M. ED.

S. T.—1860—X.

DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS

Of this celebrated brand appears to be in every one's mouth, as well as on every one's table. They are a splendid article, and can be relied upon to strengthen and invigorate exhausted nature.

Depot, 202 Broadway, N. Y.

P. H. DRAKE & CO.

COAL AND WOOD.

The subscriber offers at wholesale or retail the following varieties of Coal and Wood:

Foreign.

English Coal, Liverpool Oval, Scotch Cannel.

BITUMINOUS.

Cumberland.

SEMI-BITUMINOUS.

Franklin, or Lykens Valley, Trevorton.

Red Ash.

Diamond Larchberry, Larchberry.

White Ash.

Loons Mountain, Lackawanna.

Chestnut, Henry Clay.

CHARCOAL AND COKE.

WOOD—Walnut, Maple, Oak, and Pine, constantly on hand and filled to order.

PREPARED KINDLING BY THE BOX OR CORD.

JOSEPH BRADFORD,

Opposite the Custom House.

April 11.

WANTON T. SHERMAN,

DEALER IN

MEATS OF ALL KINDS.

POULTRY, GAME, VEGETABLES AND FRUIT.

BRICK MARKET,

Foot of Washington Square.

Where can always be found a full assortment of choice
Beef, Mutton, Lamb, Veal, Pork, Hams, Tongue, Lard, Pork, Eggs, Game, Vegetables of all kinds, and all other articles generally found in a first class Market.Wagons deliver articles in any part of the city, and will be found guaranteed both in quality and price.

June 3-6 w.

SOMETHING NEW!

Flour, Corn, Oats, Feed and Fine

Meal, Short and Midlings,

AT SWINBURNE'S.

PLINY FISKE'S FAMILY COAL.

Never before introduced in the New England market.

True economy to buy it,

AT SWINBURNE'S,

WHARF OPPOSITE FOOT OF MARY STREET.

which 15 u.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

on.

Protected Solution of the

PROTOXIDE OF IRON,

THE SOVEREIGN REMEDY FOR

DYSPERIA,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

CHRONIC DIARRHEA,

Y. E. VALE'S COMPLAINTS,

and all diseases originating in

A BAD STATE OF THE BLOOD.

As INVULGAR TONIC and ALTERNATIVE. Sold by

CAEWELL, MACK & CO., Newport, R. I., and by

J. M. SWAN & CO., Boston.

No. 23 Washington street.

10.

SCOTCH GOODS.—Just received a new and elegant

Assortment of fine goods at

J. M. SWAN & CO.,

Boston.

No. 23 Washington street.

11.

Special Notices.

LATEST NEWS.

Consumption, Gravel, Gout, Chronic Rheumatism, Dropsey, Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, and Bladder Complaints.

The above medical beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, in Holland, expressly for medical use.

It has been submitted to the first chemists and physicians in this country and Europe, who have certified to its valuable medicinal qualities, and prescribed it in their practice. The proprietor has in his possession more than ten thousand letters from patients who have used it in the above named complaints. He has the privilege of referring to the following physicians, who stand at the head of their profession in this city. Put up in pint and quart bottles, and for sale by druggists and grocers.

EDOLPHUS WOLFE,

No. 22 Bayley Street, New York.

REFERENCES IN THIS CITY:

VALENTINE MOTTE, M. D.

J. M. GARNETT, M. D., Professor of Clinical Surgery and Surgeon-in-Chief of the State Hospital in the City of New York.

B. J. RAPHAEL, M. D., Professor of the Principles and

Practice of Surgery of the New York Medical College

in the City of New York.

LEWIS A. SAVIL, M. D.

H. P. DE WEE, M. D.

JOSEPH WOOSTER, M. D.

NATHAN STEELE, M. D.

And many others too numerous to mention in this advertisement.

People should be particular in purchasing as the whole country is loaded with American Gin, put up in bottles of all sizes.

Oct 11—1860.

CITY COAL YARD.

FAMILY COALS.

A fine assortment of the choicest the markets afford always on hand, and at satisfactory prices. Also, all kinds of Wood, Prepared Kindling and Coke.

CHAS. WILLIAMS.

Jan 11 ly

BACHELOR'S HAIR DYE!

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

WILLIAM A. BACHELOR'S

Celebrated Hair Dye produces a color not to be distinguished from nature—warranted not to injure the hair in the least; remedies the ill effects of bad dye;

and invigorates the Hair for life. GREY, RED, or

RUSTY HAIR instantly turns a splendid Black or Brown, leaving the Hair soft and beautiful. Sold by all Druggists, &c.

The Gemini is signed WILLIAM A. BACHELOR,

on the four sides of each box.

FACTORY, No. 81 Barclay Street,

(Late 215 Broadway and 16 Bond,) New York.

May 28-1860.

TO HORSE OWNERS.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment

FOR HORSES

Is unrivaled by any, and in all cases of lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises, or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain.

Spain and Ringbone may be easily cured and cured

in incipient stages, but continue beyond the possibility of a radical cure.

No case of lameness, however, is so difficult as to require the use of this Liniment, but it may be almost a Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

See advertisement.

June 4-1860.

DR. SWEET'S

Infallible Liniment.

GREAT EXTERNAL REMEDY.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Lameness, Stiff

Neck and Joints, Sprains, Bruises, Cuts and

Wounds, Piles, Headache, and all Rheumatism and Nervous Disorders.

Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, The great natural Bone-Setter.

Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, Is known all over the United States.

Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, Is the author of "Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment."

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment Cures Rheumatism and never fails.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment Is a certain remedy for Neuralgia.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment Cures Burns and Scalds immediately.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment Is the best known remedy for Sprains and Bruises.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment Cures Headache immediately, and was never known to fail.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment Affords immediate relief for Piles, and seldom fails to cure.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment Cures Burns and Scalds immediately.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment Cures Toothache in one minute.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment Cures Cuts and Wounds immediately and leaves no scar.</div

The Daily Spy.

YOUNG & WILCOX,
Book Job Printing and Publishing House have an EXCELSIOR or SPRING on the PRINCIPAL, on any establishment of the kind in any part of the State.

PAMPHLETS,
POSTERS,
CIRCULARS,
BANK CHECKS,
DRAFTS, PROGRAMMES,
and all Descriptions and Maps.

HOTEL PRINTING.

Of all Kinds,
TOGETHER WITH PRINTING IN
COLORED INKS AND BRONZE,
Neatly, Cheaply and promptly executed.

As the office is thoroughly stocked with new pe of all descriptions, and FAST POWER ESSES, the proprietor feels satisfied that his work will continue to give the same if not better satisfaction, than it has during past years.

GEORGE T. HAMMOND, Proprietor.

For Sale and to Rent.

TWO FURNISHED HOUSES to rent till the 1st of May next at moderate rents, one on Kay Street, and one on John Street, both with gas and water complete, immediate possession given. Apply to
ALFRED SMITH.

FOR RENT—A nicely furnished cottage on Kay st., belonging to Mrs. Goodwin, for the autumn and winter.
Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR SALE—The villa on Bellevue Avenue, belonging to Henry Heywood, including furniture, on the termination of the lease to M. D. Parker. This place of situation is one of the most desirable in Newport for the summer season. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR RENT—A small, neat furnished cottage, 87 by 110 feet, with a large billiard room and a first rate billiard table with balls, cues, etc., &c., complete.—
There are four bed-rooms on the 2d floor and one on the 1st floor—the cottage is well built and on "Rhoole Island Avenue," near the villas of R. M. Gilbert and Mr.
Sears, overlooking the beach, and one of the finest situations in Newport. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR LET—Three rooms in Second Story of house
No. 121 Thames Street, suitable for offices, and one if CHAS. E. HAMMETT, Jr.

FOR RENT—Several furnished and unfurnished cottages in May st., 1862. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR SALE—Several fine building sites near the residence of Mrs. Porter. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR SALE—"Lee's Spar Yard," being about 150 feet of lumber or water front—a carpenter's shop, and about 15,000 feet of all for the small sum of $300. The carpenter's shop alone rents for $60 per annum. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

GRAND PIANO TO RENT—To rent, for the season or longer term, a first-rate grand piano. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR SALE—At six cents per foot, a few more of those nice cheap lots near the Gas Works. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR SALE LOW—A fine lot of land, 222 X 140 feet, situate on the Mall Road and adjoining the land of Mr. Richard J. Arnold. Will be sold in one or more lots to suit purchasers. Nearly the whole of the purchase money may remain on mortgage on the property,
if desired, with interest. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

TO LET—A Tenement in first rate order. Enquire at 117 Thames Street.

A unfurnished house to rent for $150 per annum—
apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR RENT—A large house on Clark Street, belonging to Charles B. King, of Washington—rent $250 a week—immediate possession given. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR RENT—A desirable house on Washington
Street, with a harbor front—$100 a year.—
Immediate possession given. Apply to
ALFRED SMITH.

DESIRABLE VILLA LOTS FOR SALE—Four lots of land on Greenwich Place, near the residence of Mrs. Mary Porter. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

TO LET—A first class furnished house on Pelham Street, near the Atlantic Hotel—with water and gas to the first of May next. Immediate possession given. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR RENT—A few more furnished Cottages, at less than half the usual rents. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR SALE LOW—That fine building site known as the "Henderson lot" on Pelham Park and Mill streets, overlooking Towns Park. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR SALE—A furnished house on Bellevue Avenue, opposite the residence of the late W. S. Wetmore, with the lot of land for $10,000. This place has always been rented for $1,000 for the season—the house has gas and water complete. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR SALE—A furnished Cottage on Elmwood Street, with gas and water complete—$100 for the season—will be sold low enough to make a good investment for the subscriber. Apply to ALFRED SMITH.

TO LET—A valuable sea weed privilege, belonging to the Oyster Farm. Apply to A. SMITH, Agent.

VILLAS, COTTAGES AND FARMS FOR SALE—
apply to ALFRED SMITH.

FOR SALE:
Lots, very finely situated, for building or gardening, within five minutes walk of the Court House, at one cent per square foot. Apply to HENRY TURNER.

Medicines.

ECONOMY IN WEALTH!

CURE YOUR COUGH FOR ONE DIME.

The best and cheapest Household Remedy
in the world.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S GREAT COUGH REMEDY.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S Cough Remedy is warranted used according to the directions, to cure in all cases, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Asthma, and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S BALM is prepared with all the valuable care and skill from a combination of the best remedies the vegetable kingdom affords. Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of the blood, through the lungs. It is not a violent remedy, but emollient—warning, searching and effective;
can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child.

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S BALM
has been used by the public for over 10 years, and has acquired its present sale simply by being recommended by those who have used it, to their afflicted friends and others.

NOTICE!—MADAME ZADOC
PORTER'S Coughing Balsam is sold at a price which brings it in the reach of every one to keep it convenient for use. The timely use of a single bottle will prove to be worth 100 times its cost.

NOTICE—SAVE YOUR MONEY!!—Do not be persuaded to purchase it at $1 to $1, which do not contain the virtues of a Dime. Bottles of Madame Porter's Cough Balsam, the cost of manufacturing, which is great as that of almost any other article, makes the low price of a single bottle, makes the profit to the seller apparently small, and unprincipled dealers make other mistakes on which their profits are larger, unless the customers insist upon having Madame Porter's and none other. Ask for Madame Porter's Cough Balsam, price 10cts, and in large bottles at 20cts, and take no other. If you cannot get it at one store you can at another.

NOTICE—BOLD BY all Druggists and Store-keepers at 10 cts, and in larger bottles at 20cts.—
HALL & HUCKEL, Proprietors,
New York.
For sale in New York by R. J. Taylor, and Caswell, Mac & Co., Agents.
Dec. 13—1861.

DYSPEPSIA REMEDY,

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

Aromatic Invigorating Spirit.

This Medicine has been used by the public for seven years, and is a Specific as any medicine can be.—
Dr. KEITH, M. D.—Am. Jour. of Medical Science.

I have found them all that could be desired. Their effect is truly wonderful. I used them in a case of Spermatorrhœa of long standing, which had been under treatment for years, and took three doses and
completely effected the cure.—E. P. DICKER, M. D.

It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Irritate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing all cases of Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Head-Burn, Colic, Pain, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains to the Bowels, Headache, Draw-siness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance.

PRICE—$1 per Box. Six Boxes for $6, by Mail order. For sale by all respectable Druggists, and at the Sole General Depot in the United States, by
J. WINCHESTER,
36 John Street, New York.

Sold at wholesale by J. BALCH & SON, Druggists,
36 John Street, New York.

For sale by W. S. N. ALLAN, Apothecary Hall,
Washington Square, Newport.

Medicines.

WICHITA'S

HYPOPHOSPHITES,

FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF

Consumption, Asthma, Chronic Bronchitis, Nervous Prostration, General Debility,
Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Marasmus, Loss of Appetite, Neuralgia, Female Complaints, and all Disorders of the Nerves and Blood Systems.

This Remedy has obtained a great reputation for most EXTRAORDINARY CURES in ALL STAGES OF CONSUMPTION. It is recommended by many leading physicians in the United States and Europe—having received with regard to its results UNPARALLELED IN THE ARTS OR SCIENCES.

The Hypophosphites have a two-fold and specific action:
on the one hand, increasing the principle which constitutes nervous energy, and on the other, being the MOST POWERFUL BLOOD GENERATING AGENT KNOWN. In cases of Nervous Debility, or Prostration of the Vital Powers, from any cause,
this remedy has no superior.

"Winchester's Genuine Preparation"

Is the only reliable form of the Hypophosphites, made after the original formula of Dr. Churchill.

INQUIRE FOR AND USE NO OTHER.

A Fair Trial is a certain Cure!

PRICES—In 7 oz. Bottles, $1. 80 Bottles for $6.
In 16 oz. Bottles, $2. Tires for $5. Circular gratis to all respectable Druggists, and at the Sole General Depot in the United States, by
J. WINCHESTER,
36 John Street, New York.

THE SPECIFIC PILL.

A SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR

Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, and Genital Irritability in either Sex.

This Malady, the terrible consequences of which are too well known to require more than a bare allusion to them, is one of the most insidious, and therefore dangerous, of all the long catalogue of humanills. It saps the very springs of life, rapidly undermines the constitution, and sinks the unhappy victim into infi-lidity and a premature grave! From one to six boxes of the SPECIFIC PILL will suffice to effect a permanent cure in the most AGGRAVATED CASES, whether Constitutional, or arising from Abuse or Excesses.

MEDICAL TESTIMONY.

We believe it to be, in the treatment of Spermatorrhœa, no less than a Specific as any medicine can be.—
Dr. KEITH, M. D.—Am. Jour. of Medical Science.

I have found them all that could be desired. Their effect is truly wonderful. I used them in a case of Spermatorrhœa of long standing, which had been under treatment for years, and took three doses and
completely effected the cure.—E. P. DICKER, M. D.

This is not a Homopathic Remedy, nor is there any mercury or other deleterious ingredient contained with it.

PRICE—$1 per Box. Six Boxes for $6, by Mail order. For sale by all respectable Druggists, and at the Sole General Depot in the United States, by
J. WINCHESTER,
36 John Street, New York.

Sold at wholesale by J. BALCH & SON, Druggists,
36 John Street, New York.

For sale by W. S. N. ALLAN, Apothecary Hall,
Washington Square, Newport.

USE DALLEY'S

MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR.

The Only true Pain Extractor in the World!

DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure wounds
of all kinds.

DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR will subdue all external inflammation.

DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR will prevent and destroy Mortification.

DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure Burns of all kinds.

DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR heals Blister free
of all kinds.

DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR neutralizes all Poisons
infused by Animals, Insects or Reptiles.

DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure broken
Breasts, Sprains, Piles, etc.

DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure Salt
Rheum, Scrofula, Scald Head.

DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure Chapped Hands, Chilblains, etc.

DALLEY'S PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure Corns, Carboes, Ulcers, Warts, Boils, &c.

Housekeeper should ever be without a box handy to use. The only use of a single box may prove to be of great service in saving 100 dollars.

One dose of this will remove Bad Breath.

Dalleys Pain Extractor, made by Dr. Dalleys, will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

If you do not use it, it will cost you but little.

Sisters!—If you have a dear Brother in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor, for it will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Daughters!—Have you loved one in the Army who is dearer to you than life itself? Send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor. It will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Friends!—If you have a friend in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor. It will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Daughters!—If you have a friend in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor. It will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Friends!—If you have a friend in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor. It will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Daughters!—If you have a friend in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor. It will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Friends!—If you have a friend in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor. It will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Daughters!—If you have a friend in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor. It will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Friends!—If you have a friend in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor. It will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Daughters!—If you have a friend in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor. It will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Friends!—If you have a friend in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor. It will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Daughters!—If you have a friend in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor. It will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Friends!—If you have a friend in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor. It will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Daughters!—If you have a friend in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor. It will cure all kinds of pain without pain.

Friends!—If you have a friend in the Army, send him a Box of Dalleys Pain Extractor.